P.O. Boxes:

An accessible mailbox has been installed at the Post Office. The FCOD is not sure how the process worked or who is responsible for creating the change but is happy that the mailbox issue has been resolved.

Parking lot:

Sue found that the parking spaces in the Veteran's Memorial Parking lot located near the building are private property and owned by the businesses. The Town of Foxboro owns the parking spaces in the middle of the lot. The town is working on trying to make the parking lot more accessible.

The FCOD continues to research making all businesses in the downtown area accessible to all.

Brochure stickers:

Jim suggested ordering new brochures with the correct names and the Facebook logo rather than trying to fix the old ones. Cindy made a motion to print 200 new brochures. Margaret 2nd the motion. All approved

Autism Bags:

Cindy contacted Chuck Karboski regarding the Autism bags for the Police Department and is waiting for a response. She will contact him again.

Boyden Library:

Cindy was able to find magnifiers that would be appropriate for the Boyden Library. Sue will order the magnifiers.

Margaret will contact the Foxboro Reporter and Sun Chronicle to announce that the FCOD is accepting applications for the 2022 Above and Beyond Award. David will also post it on the FCOD Facebook page. The award will be presented on November 22, 2022 at the Selectman's meeting at Town Hall.
